

MEDIA RELEASE

Video, audio, and/or photos of all education programming and events will be documented at various times during the competition (local and national), workshops, city-wides, presentations, performances, rehearsals, productions, or meetings. All events are recorded/documentated 1) to create short excerpts to use when entreating funds from private and public institutions, 2) to reproduce for news and community affairs telecasts and, 3) to retain for archival purposes and marketing materials as deemed necessary by Kenny Leon’s True Colors Theatre Company. Subject to the conditions listed herein, reproductions are permissible for use for television newscast reviews of the production, or a feature story on the production contained within a television news program, local public affairs program or magazine format programs, written publication, educational materials or any other medium as approved by True Colors.

True Colors will maintain control and ownership of all materials reproduced and will ensure that it is used for no commercial purposes whatsoever. No person affiliated with the production shall receive compensation for the use of any video and/or photo.

I further agree to indemnify and hold Kenny Leon’s True Colors staff harmless from any and all claims, which are brought by or on behalf of the student, teaching artist, instructor, and or performer; and those who are in any way connected with the student/participant from the use of the aforementioned materials.

_____ I have read this document in its entirety. I understand and agree to its terms. (Please initial)

Participant Signature

Printed Name

Parent Signature (if under 18)

Parent Printed Name

Date